

Acknowledgments and Release

STUDENT'S AGREEMENT

Every student, regardless of age, must read and sign below.

I have read and agree to comply with the rules and conditions set forth in the District's "Acceptable Use and Internet Safety Policy." I understand that any violations of the above provisions may result in disciplinary action, including the revocation of my user account privileges, other disciplinary action such as suspension or expulsion and civil and/or criminal legal action.

I understand the "Waiver of Privacy and Monitoring" provision above and understand that my use of the District's resources and services (such as e-mail and Internet access) is not private or confidential and may be accessed, intercepted, monitored or reviewed by the District at any time.

I hereby release the District and its providers, operators, administrators, employees and agents from any and all claims of any nature arising from my use or inability to use the District's computers, networks, Internet connections, communication systems and other online and electronic resources.
