Happy Day! We hope you and your family had a wonderful beginning to the New Year. We are so happy to have your students back after the three days of no school due to severe weather. Below you will find the latest news and information for Maple Leaf students and families for the week of January 8.

January 15- Students will not have classes on Monday, January 15 for Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

January 18- Parent Conferences will be held on Thursday, January 18 from 4pm-7pm. Please sign up with your child's teacher for a scheduled time. Third grade parents are asked to meet in the library for an important Third Grade Reading Guarantee meeting at 6pm on January 18 presented by Mrs. Abby Banning, Maple Leaf's Literacy Coach.

January 19- All Pro Dads will be held in the cafeteria at 7:15am

Week of January 22- STAR ELA Testing in the computer Lab

January 26- Top Dog Assembly

Week of January 29- STAR Math Testing in the computer Lab

Just a few reminders:

Please dress your child appropriately for the cold weather. If you are in need of hats, scarves, gloves, and/or winter jackets please contact Mrs. Toya Hodge, Maple Leaf's school counselor, and she will be happy to assist you.

Lastly, please like our Facebook page. We are having a competition with the other two elementary buildings in Garfield Heights. The school that has the most likes will be rewarded with a Dance Party! So, go to FB, Maple Leaf Elementary School, and LIKE our page. Also, Invite Friends To Like Our Page. We have 419 LIKES as of today!

Go Bulldogs!
